Careers	Have set this aside until 2018/19	Physical, Emotional and mental health	Adult Learning Schools	2018/19		First of all we need to understand what is already provided by secondary and understand where the gaps are, we can then build on them and will not duplicate or reinvent the wheel. I firmly believe more can be done though for young people to support them leaving secondary and giving them the tools to have successful careers. This has not been progressed as yet – suggest we see what comes from next priority survey.

Physical, Emotional & Mental Health	Youth Activities Proposal - Emotional resilience within schools and youth provision– do our schools teach this? If not can we provide support in this area? Links to recent school survey and action plan – gaps and examples of good practice – resilience nurses – not enough, Rollercoaster programme (Spenny – Parent peer support); Pupil peer support (Inv in Child)	Holidays Activities 12-15 Children’s health Activities 16+ Relationships	Children’s Services, Schools, One Point, Youth activity providers	2018/19	£11,700 budget	The action plan for the 2017 school / pupil survey highlights a number of actions regarding emotional resilience. The task group will pick this up in 2018/19 and see how the AAP can support or if this is in fact being mainstreamed. Providers discussion took place in September 2018 highlighting the following areas of work – address waiting period between diagnoses and actual intervention; the need for further domestic abuse support around the family; longer term support to put education into primary schools Identified Cornforth Partnerships ASK and Hearts and Minds projects as good practice and asked for proposals.
