Membership Terms and Conditions

- i. The membership package chosen is subject to the rules and regulations of the participating centres. The management team reserves the right to refuse membership.
- ii. Membership is personal to the member and is non-assignable, non-transferable and non-refundable.
- iii. To ensure safe access for customers members are required to have a digital photograph taken at reception which will be held on our system for security reasons. All relevant membership details will be recorded on the Leisure Management System.
- iv. Members will be issued with a Thrive card which will remain the property of the Council. This card must be produced to gain access to the facilities at all times. Failure to produce the Thrive card will prohibit access. A member may not loan his/her Thrive card or permit it to be used by anyone else. If a Thrive card is lost or mislaid, the management team will issue a replacement Thrive card for a reasonable charge.
- v. The membership entitles a member to use the stated facilities during centre specific pre-determined times. These may vary at leisure centres. Durham County Council reserves the right to alter the access times where required.
- vi. Limited fitness classes are included where applicable. Management may specify certain programmes, classes and activities where Young Lifestyle members may participate without adult supervision. Fitness classes vary and may change.
- vii. Anyone wishing to use the fitness suite must attend an initial appointment prior to use.
- viii. Under 18's:

Young Lifestyle Membership Terms and Conditions

- a. Membership is available to individuals of at least 11 years of age; however payment by Direct Debit mandates can only be accepted from an account holder over the age of 18 years.
 - b. The agreement to pay is with the person who gives consent to the Membership. This must be the same person who makes the payment in full or initial payment and subsequent payments. It will be the person over 18 who signs these terms and conditions and paying the membership fee who will be responsible for any breach of these terms and conditions.
- ix. Eligibility for the Young Lifestyle Membership will end when the member turns 16 years old. At this point the Direct Debit will automatically change to the Direct Debit concession membership price applicable at the centre or the annual concession price will be charged on the yearly renewal of the membership.
 - x. Members under 16 years of age may use cardiovascular and resistance equipment which has been prescribed by a trained member of the fitness team.
 - xi. Only equipment shown by a trained instructor and added to a member's programme card may be used. When attending the gym, members must always keep their programme card with them.
 - xii. Members who turn 16 must attend a programme review and be shown how to use additional resistance and free weight equipment before use.
 - xiii. The management team reserves the right to introduce additional categories of membership from time to time.

Rules and Regulations

- i. The Council shall make the rules for the facilities the Fitness Suite Rules. These are provided to members for their safety and enjoyment of their membership. A copy of the Fitness Suite Rules is displayed at the facilities. Members should also be aware of and adhere to the Council's policies and procedures displayed within the centres.
- ii. The Fitness Suite Rules form part of the Membership Terms and Conditions, and each member agrees to abide by the terms whilst adhering to Council policies and procedures.
- iii. The Council reserves the right to vary the terms and conditions and the Fitness Suite Rules from time to time. Any changes to the terms and conditions or the rules shall be posted at reception which will constitute due notice of all changes.
- iv. Site specific policies, regulations and guidance relating to section 1 above is provided by each specific centre. Members must agree to and adhere to all policies, regulations and guidance and must obtain these from the leisure centre prior to the use of the facilities.

Limitation of Liability
