

Privacy Notice: Durham County Council Disabled Registrations

This Privacy Notice tells you about what information we collect about you, how we use that information and who we share it with.

1. Who we are and what we do

Under Section 77 of the Care Act 2014 Durham County Council may establish and maintain one or more registers for disabled adults living in the authorities area and has a responsibility for and implementing administrative and assessment in accordance with the governing legislation contained in the Equality Act 2010.

For further information on Health and disability services please see the Durham County Council website. For information about how to apply to be registered as disabled person please contact bluebadgescheme@durham.gov.uk

For the purposes of Data Protection, Durham County Council is the Data Controller for disabled registrations in County Durham.

2. What type of personal information do we collect and how do we collect it?

The following personal information is collected as part of a disabled registration application and assessment process:

- Name
- Address
- Contact Details
- Date of Birth
- National Insurance Number
- Information as to whether a companion is required in order to travel

The following special category data is collected

- Ethnicity
- Evidence to support automatic eligibility to be registered (e.g. blue badge holder, payment of qualifying disability allowances)
- Details of medical conditions affecting mobility, pain medication and assessment of walking ability

Information is collected by completion of an application form which can be submitted by post or by e mail. Supporting information in terms of other registrations or benefit allowances is also collected from you to evidence your eligibility.

Following your application, information may also be gathered from your GP as part of the assessment of your eligibility to be included on the register.

3. What is our lawful basis to obtain and use your personal information?

To enable us to provide services to you, it may be necessary for us to obtain relevant information and to share your personal information with others. To do so we will use the following legal basis for obtaining and sharing your information:

- processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller;
- processing is necessary for the purpose of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by a third party for special category data which is more sensitive information, we also rely on the following:

- Health and Social Care - we use it to deliver health or social care services

4. What is your personal information used for?

Durham County Council may use your information for the following purposes:

- For the administration and assessment of the disabled registration application in accordance with governing legislation.
- planning the provision by the authority of services to meet needs for care and support, and
- monitoring changes over time in the number of adults in the authority's area with needs for care and support and the types of needs they have
- to confirm eligibility for a disabled concessionary travel pass
- Ethnicity is gathered for equality monitoring

5. Will your personal information be shared?

Data may be used for statistical purposes in order plan adult care and support services in Durham and to monitor changes over time. Data used for this purpose will be anonymised so that you cannot be identified.

6. How do we keep your information secure?

The security of your personal information is important to us. The records we keep about you are secure and are confidential within the Council. The Council have a range of procedures, policies and systems to ensure that access to your records are controlled appropriately.

Anyone who receives information from us is also under a legal duty to only use the information for the purposes agreed and keep the information secure and confidential.

7. How long will we keep your personal information?

We must keep business records of our involvement with you. The type of service you receive will determine how long we have to keep your personal information.

Our corporate retention guidelines show how long we keep information for different services. Your records will be retained in accordance with the Adult and Health retention schedule as follows:
